

World Cup 2010 Quotas

The number of athletes that each nation can enter in the World Cup events in 2010 is based on the World Ranking List Federation League table (World Cup 10 Quotas) as at 31 December 2009.

As previous years, the six best nations - separately for men and women - may enter eight athletes in the World Cup events (with the exception of the World Championships). All other full members may enter six athletes. All Individual World Champions shall be offered a wild card place in competitions 4 to 6 (World Champions 2009) and 10 and 11 (World Champions 2010) provided they are selected by their Federation.
