

Event Evaluation MTBO World Cup 2014

Explanations please see page 3.

1. Information before the event and communication with organiser

All information about the event was easy to find and understand.

All information (bulletins etc.) was given in time.

The organiser's website was easy to use, well designed and contained all necessary information.

The organiser answered inquiries promptly and competently.

2. Event programme

It was well balanced and the order of the competitions was fine.

The rest day was scheduled according to the competitors' needs.

Open/public races were held in conjunction with the main event in a suitable manner.

3. Event centre

All necessary infrastructure (including free internet access) was available.

The staff was competent and helpful.

7. Maps

The scale was appropriate on all maps.

It was clear for the competitors were you could pass and where not.

The maps were accurate and showed the latest changes.

The precise location of the controls was clearly visible on the map.

7. Maps

The printing quality was good and the maps could be read well while riding.

The print on the maps was good and resistant to handling and moisture.

Overprinting didn't cover any important features such as tracks or junctions.

8. Time-keeping and results

Good display of results at finish arena (big screen, wooden board etc.)

Results were prompt and correct.

Correct results were published on the internet on the day of the event.

Split times were available on the day of the event.

9. Team officials' meetings and information during event

Team officials' meetings were well-organised and the information given was easy to understand.

The start lists were correct and published in time.

All the necessary information was given at the team officials' meetings.

The latest information (e.g. start lists) was available on-line.

10. Publicity, media, press

It was easy for spectators at the finish arena to follow the competitors (well-informed speaker, start bibs according to starting order, display of results, GPS-tracking, ect.)

The organisers made every effort to maximise media coverage without jeopardizing the fairness of the competitions.

Media and press people found adequate facilities and working conditions at the event centre and the finish arenas.

Interviewers and photographers did their work in a way so as not to disturb the competitors.

11. General organisation

How would you rate bike mechanic services provided by the organizer (mechanic at start or bike repair shop at the event centre or nearby)?

How would you rate the quality of the open/public races?

Bike-wash was well organised (possibilities at finish arenas, event centre, accommodation; enough stations, etc.).

Point 9: Information (e.g. regarding locations) was also easily accessible to people who did not take part in the elite classes such masters, spectators or participants at open races.

12. Ceremonies and banquet

Place and time of ceremonies fitted well into competitors' schedule.

How would you rate the food at the banquet (quality, quantity)?

The prize-giving ceremonies were dignified and worthy of the event and of adequate duration.

The price for the banquet was reasonable.

13. Overall rating of the event

How would you rate the overall quality?

How would you rate the atmosphere of the event?
