Iulia Stupu, Romania: "I like to win"

Ten-year-old Romanian Iulia Stupu is born into orienteering. We meet her at an open orienteering event close to Ploiesti, just north of capital Bucuresti in Romania. The first editions of the event were skiing events, but due to the lack of snow it has been organised as an orienteering event.

Kirsty McIntyre: A report from Anti-Doping Organisation Symposium

Recently appointed IOF Anti-Doping Officer Kirsty McIntyre attended the Symposium for the first time, together with Secretary General Tom Hollowell. At a time when the topic of Doping in Sport has never been more relevant or important, the theme for this year's symposium was Partnering for Quality Practice. As a global movement, the Anti-Doping community faces many challenges today, not least the challenge to restore the public's faith in sport.
