

Job Description

Position: Project Manager – World Orienteering Day (part-time ~20%)

Responsibilities and tasks:

- Project Management of the World Orienteering Day project including:
 - Creation of a project activity plan and budget in cooperation with the project coordinator
 - Follow-up of the plan, taking corrective actions where necessary
 - Follow-up of the budget
- Communications with IOF member federations and organisers about the project
 - Maintenance of the World Orienteering Day homepage in cooperation with the IOF Office
 - Publishing of the World Orienteering Day Newsletter, collecting material from the project coordinator and member federations
 - Responding to enquiries about the project
- Coordination of activities with project sponsors
- External Communications via social media, press releases etc in cooperation with the IOF Communications Officer

Requirements

- Excellent communications skills in English
 - Effective communicator – knowledge of channels and methods
 - Good interpersonal skills – likes social and professional contact
 - Service professional – listens and makes all efforts to meet customer needs
 - Knowledge of sport/orienteering
-