

INVITATION AND CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

for

the 18th International Conference on Orienteering Mapping

Friday, October 5, 2018

Prague, Czech Republic

The IOF Map Commission invites you to the 18th International Conference on Orienteering Mapping that will take place in conjunction with the IOF General Assembly and Orienteering World Cup 2018 final round in Prague. The conference has become a traditional event where mapmakers, and those with an interest in orienteering maps, from around the world discuss and share information about the latest mapping standards, techniques and developments in a relaxed and informal atmosphere.

We are convinced that the 18th ICOM will live up to the successes of its predecessors. The programme has been arranged to make it possible for you to take part in the public race and other important events.

TOPICS OF THE CONFERENCE

- Advances in digital printing of maps
- Application of Lidar data
- Use of unmanned aerial vehicles (UAV)
- Surveying techniques
- Generalization techniques and issues
- Recent developments in software
- Map specifications development
- Map reading problems (colour vision impairment, eyesight weakening)
- Map archive
- Role of open data
- Other

TIMETABLE

We expect to start the conference in the morning. In the afternoon there will be an organized excursion to the Žaket publishing company to see the whole production process of offset and digital printing of orienteering maps. ## PRAGUE

Prague (in Czech: Praha) is the capital and largest city in the Czech Republic, the 14th largest city in the European Union and also the historical capital of Bohemia. Situated in the north-west of the country on the Vltava river, the city is home to about 1.4 million people, while its larger urban zone is estimated to have a population of 2.2 million. The city has a temperate climate, with warm summers and chilly winters.

Prague has been a political, cultural and economic centre of central Europe complete with a rich history. Founded during the Romanesque and flourishing by the Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque eras, Prague was the capital of the kingdom of Bohemia and the main residence of several Holy Roman Emperors, most notably of Charles IV (r. 1346–1378). It was an important city to the Habsburg Monarchy and its Austro-Hungarian Empire. The city played major roles in the Bohemian and Protestant Reformation, the Thirty Years' War and in 20th-century history as the capital of Czechoslovakia, during both World Wars and the post-war Communist era.

Prague is home to a number of famous cultural attractions, many of which survived the violence and destruction of 20th-century Europe. Main attractions include the Prague Castle, the Charles Bridge, Old Town Square with the Prague astronomical clock, the Jewish Quarter, Petřín hill and Vyšehrad. Since 1992, the extensive historic centre of Prague has been included in the UNESCO list of World Heritage Sites.

The city has more than ten major museums, along with numerous theatres, galleries, cinemas and other historical exhibits. An extensive modern public transportation system connects the city. Also, it is home to a wide range of public and private schools, including Charles University in Prague, the oldest university in Central Europe.

Prague is classified as a "Beta+" global city according to GaWC studies and ranked sixth in the Tripadvisor world list of best destinations in 2016. Its rich history makes it a popular tourist destination and as of 2014, the city receives more than 6.4 million international visitors annually. Prague is the fifth most visited European city after London, Paris, Istanbul and Rome (read more at Wikipedia).
